The Music Ministry of St. Pancras

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

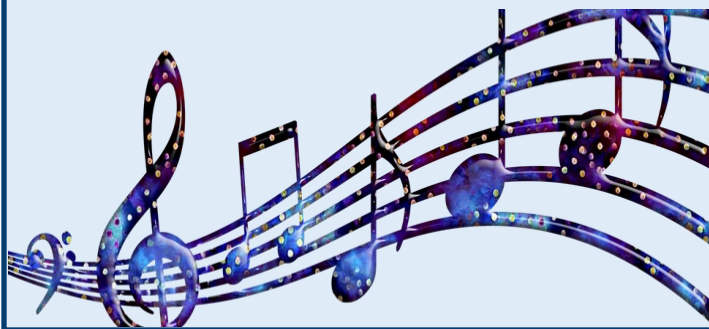

As we gather on the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, we are invited to immerse ourselves in the profound teachings of Jesus, drawn from today's Gospel of Matthew. In this illuminating parable, Jesus imparts a vital lesson about the significance of preparedness and vigilance in our spiritual lives. The story features ten virgins, five wise and five foolish, who await the arrival of the bridegroom. The wise virgins, who brought extra oil for their lamps, were ready when he came, while the foolish virgins, who did not prepare adequately, found themselves unprepared when the moment arrived.

This Gospel narrative serves as a powerful reminder for us all. It urges us to be spiritually vigilant, to keep our lamps of faith burning brightly, and to be ever-prepared for the coming of our divine bridegroom, Jesus Christ. As we go about our daily lives, let us reflect on the readiness of our hearts to receive the Lord. How can we keep our faith alive and our relationship with Christ vibrant? Together, we can strive to be among the wise virgins, always watchful, and ever-prepared for the glorious encounter with our Savior.

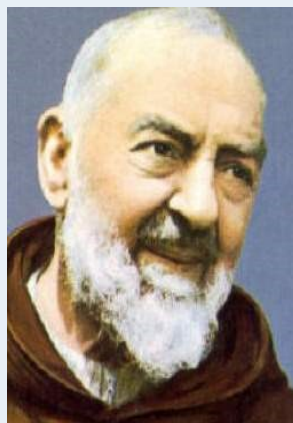

Please keep Sunday, November 19th at 3PM open on your calendars. I am looking forward to seeing all of you at our Organ Concert right here in church, provided by my good friend and colleague Michael Bower. He is sure to not disappoint!

Once again I implore you to consider joining the choir. We are very short on voices, and I hear lots of voices from the choir loft every weekend!

The Kids' Bulletin32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 12th, 2023*Always be Ready*

Have you ever thought to yourself that it would be better to have fun and be bad now, and then be good later? That's what some of the bridesmaids in today's parable were like. They only brought enough oil for their lamps, and didn't bother to bring any extra. But the other bridesmaids had been wise and took along extra flasks to refill their lamps when it got late. When the bridegroom came, those who hadn't brought extra oil were gone, getting more oil, and missed the feast!

Sometimes people say that they have lots of time to change from their evil ways, so they don't repent right away. This parable shows us that it is very foolish to leave important things until later. Nobody knows when they will die, so we should always be ready.

The oil of the bridesmaids is like the grace in our souls. We need to make sure that our soul always has sanctifying grace, which we need to get into Heaven. We lose that grace when we do a serious sin. That is why if we ever commit a serious sin, we should go to confession as soon as we can so that we will always have grace and be ready for when we die.

My soul thirsts for Thee.

ST. PANCRAS CHURCH RELICS SHRINE

In November we remember our beloved dead in a special way with our prayers on All Souls Day. At the start of the month, we honored all those who have achieved sanctity in heaven on All Saints Day.

Our shrine honors these saints. The relics are reminders to us of the holiness that is not only possible for us but what we are, in fact, called to be...that is, we are called to become Saints.

Dear Parishioners,

Please join me in welcoming back a beautiful tradition to St. Pancras Church at Christmas time. On December 2, 2023, we will celebrate our third annual Festival of Lights! In order to prepare and order the necessary materials, we need to begin, and preparations are well underway!

We will offer lit Christmas trees and angels which will be placed on the grounds leading up to the grotto which will display our outdoor Nativity. We will also offer wreaths to be memorialized as well.

For each item that is memorialized, in honor of, or in thanksgiving for, your loved one's name will be printed and hung on the tree, angel, or wreath. We feel that this will help us in beautifying our Church grounds to the fullest expression and above all, to acknowledge our loved ones during this 'Most Wonderful Time of the Year!'

We ask that you consider participating in our Super 50/50 Raffle as well. It would be great if every parishioner could help with this fundraiser. Raffle drawing will be held at the Festival of Lights celebration.

I know that your participation will let all our neighbors see how St. Pancras Church "lights up" Glendale year-round and especially during this sacred and blessed season.

We look forward to celebrating with you and wish you a Blessed Christmas Season.

Let us together make St. Pancras Church a "Festival of Lights!"
