NOVEMBER 26, 2023

FIRST READING:

As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

PSALM:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

SECOND READING:

When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all. (1 Cor 15:28)

GOSPEL:

"When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." (Mt 25:31-32)

The Music Ministry of St. Pancras

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

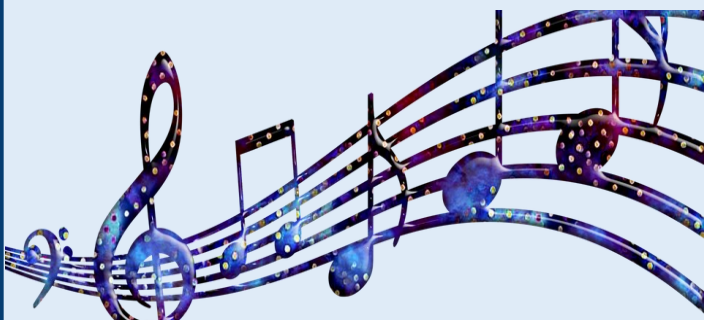

As we celebrate Christ the King, today's Gospel challenges us to recognize the essence of Christ's kingship. In Matthew 25:31-46, Jesus links his reign to how we treat the marginalized, emphasizing that in serving the least among us, we serve Him. His kingship isn't distant; it's intimately connected to compassion and action.

Our faith is a call to live out Gospel values actively. Christ's kingdom is found in our relationships, in acts of mercy, and in our response to those in need. As we celebrate Christ the King, let's recommit to extending love and mercy in our daily lives, recognizing the face of Christ in every person we encounter.

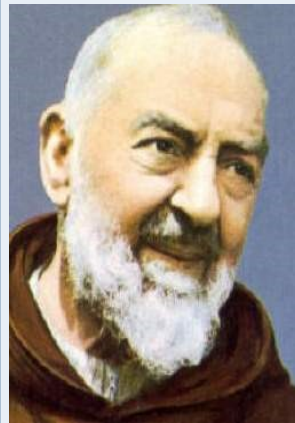

May our choices, interactions, and compassion reflect our commitment to Christ's reign. In serving others, especially the marginalized, we contribute to the establishment of Christ's kingdom on earth, where love reigns supreme, and the least among us are uplifted.

I somewhat do not want to be redundant but please consider joining the Parish Choir. We are very few in numbers now, with former members having other commitments that keep them from the Choir. Saint Pancras deserves the best choir possible. At one time this Parish was the epicenter of Liturgical Music for the Diocese of Brooklyn. How amazing would it be if you were a part of that restoration to being the epicenter? Please strongly consider this very important ministry of the Parish! If you are interested see me after any mass, email me jonathan@stpancras-queens.org, or call me directly at 718-362-1382.

*Feast of Christ the King
November 26th, 2023*

Whatever you do to others...

Jesus is a fair king. In today's Gospel reading, He tells us how He will judge people at the end of time. Those who were good to God will be saved, and those who were not good to Him will be condemned. Whoever is good to others is good to God, and whoever is unkind to others is unkind to God.

Our Lord cares so much about His people that He will judge us according to how we treat each other. Jesus is the Good Shepherd and the King, and He cares about every one of us specially. Imagine a king who came to see every one of his subjects to make sure that they were doing okay. Well, Jesus does more than that- He died for us on the cross! He looks after us all the time, and He says that anyone who is unkind to us will be judged as being unkind to Him.

Christ the King is the just judge. How do you think you will be judged when you die, or at the end of time? Are you kind to others? Do you ever think about how you would treat Jesus if He were here? Do you treat other people the way you would treat Jesus?

Answers to front page: I myself will pasture them.
Answers to match-up puzzle: 1. you gave me food, 2. you gave me drink,
3. you welcomed me, 4. you clothed me, 5. you cared for me, 6. you visited me.

Gospel Match-Up

In today's Gospel reading, Our Lord tells the people how they will be judged. What did the righteous people do when they found people in need?

See if you can match up the needs on the left with the help on the right!
