The Music Ministry of St. Pancras

Dear Parishioners,

On this Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Gospel of Mark calls us to reflect on Christ's urgent invitation to embrace God's kingdom. The disciples' immediate response teaches us the importance of prompt and wholehearted commitment.

Jesus' proclamation, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel" (Mark 1:15), resonates in our hearts. The disciples, when called, left everything immediately to follow Him.

As we ponder this passage, let's consider how we respond to Christ's call, identify distractions we must leave behind, and recognize the urgency of embracing God's kingdom in our daily lives. May this Sunday inspire a renewed commitment to follow Christ promptly, trusting His transformative power.

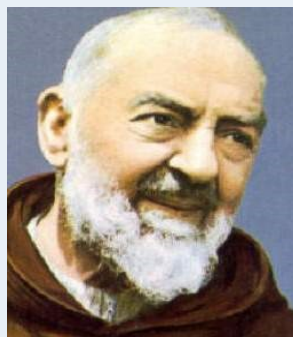

In the season of Lent I will be introducing the antiphons. Antiphons are short chants or verses that are typically sung or recited in the context of liturgical worship. We will be singing the Introit (Entrance Antiphon) and the Communion Antiphon. In the Divine Office or Liturgy of the Hours, antiphons are used in the context of the psalms and canticles that are prayed throughout the day. Each antiphon complements the psalm it is paired with and contributes to the overall structure and rhythm of the liturgical prayer.

Overall, antiphons serve to enhance the liturgical experience, providing a musical and thematic framework that aligns with the liturgical season, feast, or specific prayers being offered during the worship service. I feel starting these during Lent will really enhance the Liturgy and the solemn nature of the season. My hope is that we can continue doing this on a weekly basis.

Come, follow Me...

If God asked you to come and follow Him right now would you be ready to drop everything and follow? In today's Gospel reading that's exactly what happened to Simon and Andrew and James and John.

They had been working at their fishing nets when Jesus walked past and called them to follow Him.

We are all called to follow Jesus in some way. God wants some people to give up their lives for others like Jesus did, and some people He wants to look after the poor and sick. Some people are called to care for children and some to build things. Some people are called to be special followers of Our Lord as priests and religious.

Do you know how you can best follow Jesus? When you're young the best way to be like Him is to be kind to everyone and honour and obey your parents like the Child Jesus did. Also, you can already start praying that when the time comes you will be know how to follow Our Lord in the way that you can serve Him best.
