The Music Ministry of St. Pancras

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather together in celebration of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we are reminded of the profound mystery and gift of the Eucharist. In today's Gospel from Mark we hear the account of the Last Supper, where Jesus institutes the sacrament of the Eucharist.

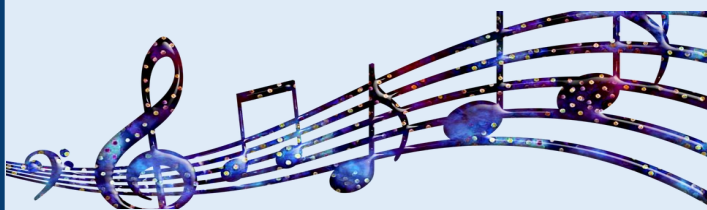

In this passage, Jesus instructs His disciples to make preparations for the Passover meal, and during the meal, He takes bread, blesses it, breaks it, and gives it to them, saying, "Take it; this is my body." He then takes the cup, gives thanks, and gives it to them, saying, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many."

Through these words and actions, Jesus establishes the Eucharist as a memorial of His sacrifice for our salvation. In receiving the Body and Blood of Christ in the Eucharist, we are united with Him in a profound way. It is through this sacrament that we are nourished spiritually, strengthened in our faith, and brought into communion with one another as members of the Body of Christ.

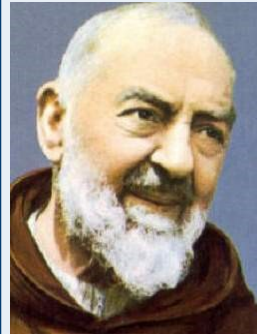

As we reflect on the gift of the Eucharist on this Solemnity, let us recommit ourselves to deepening our appreciation for this most holy sacrament. Let us approach the Eucharist with reverence, gratitude, and faith, recognizing the real presence of Christ in the bread and wine. Let us allow the grace of the Eucharist to transform us, so that we may more fully live out our call to be disciples of Christ in the world.

May our celebration of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ inspire us to deepen our relationship with the Lord and to share His love and mercy with all those we encounter.

*Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ

The Body and Blood of Our Lord

Today we celebrate the feast of the Body and Blood of Our Lord in the Holy Eucharist.

At the Last Supper, Jesus changed bread and wine into His own Body and Blood. He has the power to do this because He is God. He did this because He wanted to stay with us even after He died and went into Heaven.

Jesus comes to us in every Mass. The priest takes the place of Jesus, saying the words that Jesus said at the Last Supper, and the bread and wine become the real Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus even though they still look like bread and wine.

How do I receive Communion well?

1. Be ready! Think about what is going to happen. Make sure that you don't have any big sins on your soul. If you do, then go to confession first.

2. Don't eat or drink anything other than water or medicine for an hour before going to Holy Communion. This is a sign of respect for Our Lord.

3. After receiving Holy Communion, take some time to thank Jesus for coming to you and talk to Him. He is your best friend and loves spending time with you!

At the LAST SUPPER, after he had GIVEN thanks, JESUS took BREAD and said, "Take and EAT. THIS is my BODY." Then, taking the chalice of WINE, he said, "Take this, all of YOU, and DRINK from it. This is the CHALICE of my BLOOD, the blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be Poured out for you and for MANY for the forgiveness of sins. Do this in MEMORY of me."

That was the first MASS. When you go to HOLY COMMUNION, you really receive the Body, Blood, SOUL and DIVINITY of CHRIST, who is GOD!
