GOOD LUCK ALL AND HAVE FUN!

Church News

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather on this 31st Sunday in Ordinary Time, the message we hear in today's Gospel from Mark resonates deeply, especially in the wake of All Saints' and All Souls' Days. Jesus is asked, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" He responds by emphasizing the greatest commandments: to love God with our entire being and to love our neighbor as ourselves. This call to love captures the spirit of these two recent days of remembrance.

On All Saints' Day, we honored those who exemplified this love, both known saints and those unrecognized but equally holy. They inspire us to live with the same dedication to God's love, not necessarily through grand gestures, but through consistent, selfless love in our daily lives.

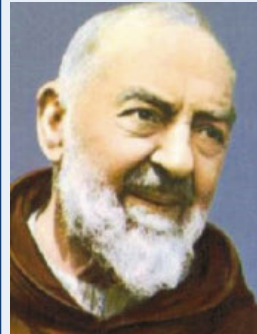

All Souls' Day followed, inviting us to remember and pray for all the faithful departed. Our prayers for them are a gesture of love and a reminder of our connectedness as the Body of Christ—both here on earth and in eternity. Through these prayers, we express our hope in God's boundless mercy and our trust that He is bringing our loved ones into His perfect love.

Today's Gospel challenges us to take these holy days' themes to heart. We are called to follow the path that saints have walked before us, striving to love God and neighbor with sincere hearts. As we carry forward the memories and prayers of All Saints' and All Souls' Days, may we find inspiration in their lives and comfort in God's promise, striving to make each day a testament to His love.

Mark 12:28-34

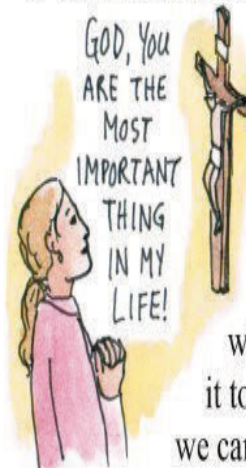

In today's Gospel reading, one of the scribes asks Jesus what the greatest commandment is.

What does Jesus say?

Use every second letter to fill in the blanks to find out!

THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT

In today's Gospel reading, one of the scribes asked Jesus what was the most important commandment of God. Jesus told him that the most important rule was to love God with everything- our heart, our soul, our mind and all our strength. The next most important rule is to love others as much as we love ourselves.

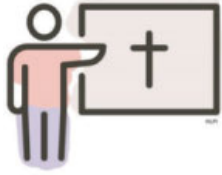

God made us to love Him. We will never be really happy unless we do. But if we keep God first in our lives then everything else will happen the way God wants it to. If we love God first, then we can love others the way God asks.

What can you do to keep God first in your life? How about saying a prayer as soon as you wake up in the morning, and last thing before you go to bed at night?

Answer to front page puzzle: You shall love the Lord your God, others
 God with all your heart.
 Answer to Greatest Commandment Puzzle:

CHURCH NEWS

Pastor's Corner

Have you ever been to the home of a Jewish friend and seen the small box positioned in the doorway frame? It contains the words of the "Shema" which we hear in today's readings. The Book of Deuteronomy says that God's people are to keep these words even on the doorposts of their homes as a reminder that they are words to live by: "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength."

Jesus says these words are the first and greatest commandment. They begin with a call to listen—"Hear, O Israel." It's a reminder that our faith starts with attentive listening to God's word. This isn't just a casual reminder. It is a way of life. Listening to God's voice, His Word, in everything we do. We are to talk about it with our children, reflect on it in our homes, and let it guide our actions and decisions. It's a call to make God's love the central theme of our existence.

That's why Jesus says the second greatest commandment - to love our neighbor - is like the first. Our love for God must naturally flow into love for others.

Are we listening attentively to God's word? Are we loving Him with all our heart, soul, and strength? Are we letting this love influence every aspect of our lives?

This week let's be challenged to live the commandment to love, God and one another in whatever way that challenge presents itself to us.

Dear Parishioners,

Please join me in welcoming back a beautiful tradition to St. Pancras Church at Christmas time. On December 7, 2024, we will celebrate our fourth annual Festival of Lights! In order to prepare and order the necessary materials, we need to begin, and preparations are well underway!

We will offer lit Christmas trees and angels which will be placed on the grounds leading up to the grotto which will display our outdoor Nativity. We will also offer wreaths to be memorialized as well.

For each item that is memorialized, in honor of, or in thanksgiving for, your loved one's name will be printed and hung on the tree, angel, or wreath. We feel that this will help us in beautifying our Church grounds to the fullest expression and above all, to acknowledge our loved ones during this 'Most Wonderful Time of the Year!'

We ask that you consider participating in our Super 50/50 Raffle as well. It would be great if every parishioner could help with this fundraiser. Raffle drawing will be held at the Festival of Lights celebration.

I know that your participation will let all our neighbors see how St. Pancras Church "lights up" Glendale year-round and especially during this sacred and blessed season.

We look forward to celebrating with you and wish you a Blessed Christmas Season.

Let us together make St. Pancras Church a "Festival of Lights!"
