Church News

Dear Parishioners,

In today's Gospel from Gospel of Matthew, Jesus begins His public ministry with a simple but demanding message. "Repent, for the Kingdom of heaven is at hand." These are not words meant only for the crowds long ago. They are spoken to us now, in the ordinary routines of our lives.

Matthew tells us that Jesus deliberately goes to Galilee, a place not known for prestige or religious importance. This matters. God does not wait for perfect conditions or perfect people. He enters real places, real work, and real struggles. Light shines first where it is most needed.

When Jesus calls Simon Peter, Andrew, James, and John, He does not give a long explanation. He simply says, "Come after me." And remarkably, they leave their nets at once. Their response reminds us that discipleship is not about knowing everything in advance. It is about trusting the One who calls.

For most of us, leaving our nets does not mean walking away from our jobs or families. It means allowing Christ to reorder our priorities. It means repentance in the true sense. A turning of the heart. A willingness to let go of what keeps us from following Him fully, even when that letting go feels uncomfortable.

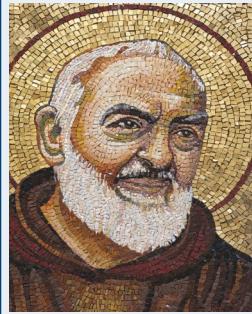

This Gospel also reminds us that Jesus calls ordinary people into extraordinary purpose. Fishermen become apostles. Daily work becomes holy ground. Our own lives are no different. In our homes, our parish, our workplaces, Christ continues to say, "Come after me."

As we begin another week in Ordinary Time, may we hear that call anew. May we trust that the Kingdom is already near. And may we have the courage, like those first disciples, to respond without delay.

The Kids' Bulletin

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
January 25th, 2026

Jesus Tells us to Repent

Today we hear about Jesus beginning His mission of preaching and healing the sick. The very first thing He tells the people is that they should repent from their sins.

Why do we need to repent of our sins? Why don't we just stop thinking about the bad things we did and start trying to be good?

Well, pretend your soul is like a garden. When you sin, it's like making a big hole in the ground. You can't grow flowers in a hole, and someone might trip on it and make the hole bigger. That's what can happen with sins too- little sins can cause bigger ones.

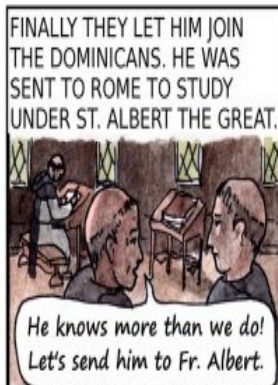

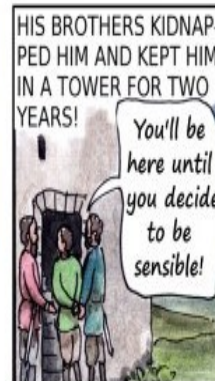

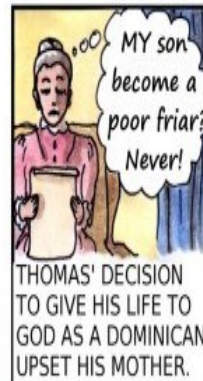

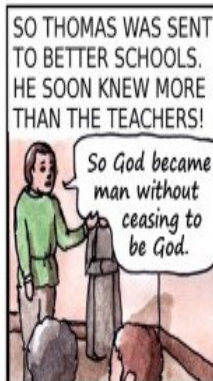

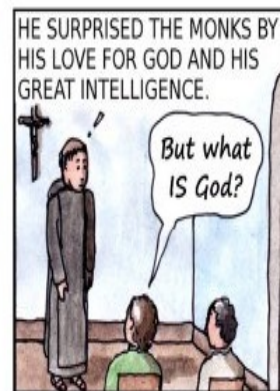

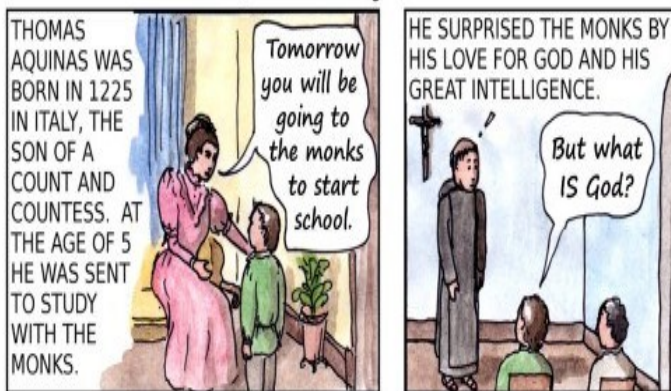

When you are sorry for your sins and go to confession it's like filling in the holes and planting flowers where they used to be. Keep your soul like a good garden and make sure you don't have any holes in it!
