Mothers Day Blessings

Dear Lord,

Pour your goodness and grace upon the women of our community today in a special way. For mothers: fill them with joy and blessing. For those who have lost children: hold them in their sorrow. For those who have hoped for children: surround them with Your love. For those who have lost a mother: may they know Your comfort. For those carrying difficulty on this day: bring them consolation.

Bless all women this day. Thank you for the love they bring to this world, no matter their circumstances or story.

Amen.

Wishing all mothers, mothers-to-be and mother figures a day filled with love, peace, and blessings. Your care and strength light up our lives today and always!

FIRST READING:

For unclean spirits, crying out in a loud voice, came out of many possessed people, and many paralyzed or crippled people were cured. There was great joy in that city. (Acts 8:7-8)

PSALM:

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy. (Ps 66)

SECOND READING:

For Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the sake of the unrighteous, that he might lead you to God. (1 Pt 3:18)

GOSPEL:

“Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.” (Jn 14:21)

“What do you call the pope when he tells a corny joke during his homily?”

“The Supreme Pun-tiff.”

The pope is sometimes called the “Supreme Pontiff,” a more formal way of referring to him. The word “pontiff” derives from the Latin word “pontifex,” which means “bridge builder.”

Music Ministry

Dear Parishioners,

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks tenderly to His disciples: "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." These words are spoken on the night before His Passion, when the disciples are about to face confusion, fear, and loss. Yet Jesus does not simply tell them to be brave. He promises them the Holy Spirit, the Advocate, the Spirit of truth, who will remain with them and be in them.

This promise is fulfilled in a beautiful way in our first reading. Philip proclaims Christ in Samaria, and the people receive the word of God with joy. Then Peter and John come from Jerusalem, lay hands on them, and they receive the Holy Spirit. The Church is not built by human enthusiasm alone. It is built by the grace of God, by the preaching of Christ, by the sacraments, and by the presence of the Holy Spirit working through the Church.

This weekend, as Cardinal Raymond Burke visits Saint Pancras to bless our Saint Carlo Acutis Shrine, we are reminded that the Holy Spirit continues to raise up witnesses in every age. Saint Carlo loved the Eucharist and used the gifts of his time to lead others closer to Christ. His short life reminds us that holiness is not something far away or reserved for another century. It is possible here and now, in our homes, in our parish, in our families, and in the ordinary choices of daily life.

Saint Peter tells us today, "Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope, but do it with gentleness and reverence." That is the kind of witness the world needs. Not anger. Not pride. Not empty words. It needs Christians who live with hope because they know they are not abandoned. It needs Catholics who can point to Christ with joy, humility, and love.

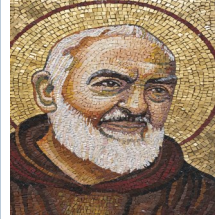

As we celebrate this special weekend in the life of our parish, may we hear again the words of Jesus: "I will not leave you orphans." The Lord remains with His Church. He remains with us in the Eucharist. He remains with us through the Holy Spirit. And through the witness of saints like Carlo Acutis, He reminds us that every heart, every family, and every parish can become a place where Christ is loved, known, and revealed.

If you love me, you will keep my commandments.
 And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth.

What did Jesus say to the disciples to prepare them for His departure? Look at this page in the mirror to find out!

Jesus Sends the Holy Spirit Through the Sacraments

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus tells the disciples that He is going away, but the Father will send the Holy Spirit to help them.

We can't see Jesus on earth any more, because His body went into Heaven at the Ascension. We can't see the Holy Spirit either, because He doesn't have a body. The Holy Spirit really is in the world, though. He is working in the Church and in people who obey and love God.

The Holy Spirit comes to us mainly through the sacraments. We get grace, which is God's life in us, when we receive the sacraments. Jesus gave us the sacraments to help us on our way to Heaven. Do you know the seven sacraments? Here is a list to help you to remember:

- Baptism
- Confession
- Confirmation
- Holy Communion
- Marriage
- Holy Orders
- Sacrament of the Sick

Our Lady of Fatima May 13th

The Fátima children, Francisco Marto, Jacinta Marto, and Lucia dos Santos, were three young shepherds, ranging in age from 7 to 10 years old, from the small village of Fátima, Portugal. On May 13, 1917, their lives changed when all three saw an apparition of Mary while tending to their flocks. The apparitions of Mary continued for six months, culminating in the famous Miracle of the Sun, or Miracle of Fátima, on October 13, 1917, which was witnessed by thousands of people.

During the apparitions, Mary conveyed messages to the children and asked them to pray the rosary. She petitioned the children to pray for world peace, the end of World War I, for sinners, and for the conversion of Russia. She also gave them three secrets — predicting the end of World War I and the start of World War II, a vision of those suffering in Hell, as well as a prediction the persecution of Christians and a man dressed in white, probably a Pope, being shot. The Church officially recognizes this as the assassination attempt on St. Pope John Paul II's life in 1981.

Tragically, both Francisco and Jacinta fell victim to the Spanish flu pandemic, with Francisco passing away in 1919 at age 10 and Jacinta in 1920 at age 9. Lucia, the eldest of the three, grew up to become a Carmelite sister. She spent her life spreading the messages of Fatima and authored six memoirs that detailed the apparitions and the secrets she and her the others had received. She lived a very long life and passed away in 2005 at the age of 97.

On May 13, 2017, the centennial of the first apparition, the Marto siblings, who died in their youth, were canonized as saints and Sister Lucia was declared a Servant of God. Lucia was elevated to Venerable on June 22, 2023. Saints Francisco, Jacinta, and Venerable Lucia,

Pray For Us!

OUR LADY OF Fatima
