Music Ministry

Dear Parishioners,

This week, as our nation celebrates its 250th birthday, we are invited not only to celebrate, but also to reflect. A milestone like this is a moment for gratitude. We give thanks for the blessings of liberty, for the sacrifices of generations before us, for those who have served and protected our country, and for the many ways God has blessed this land.

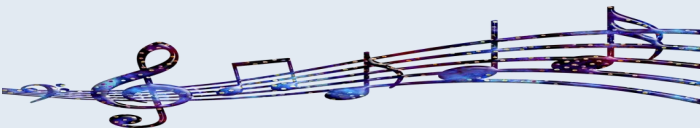

At the same time, our readings remind us what kind of greatness truly matters. The prophet Zechariah speaks of a king who comes not with pride or force, but with humility: "meek, and riding on an ass." This king brings peace, not domination. He banishes the warrior's bow and proclaims peace to the nations. For us, this is a powerful reminder that the strength of a nation is not found only in power, wealth, or success, but in justice, mercy, humility, and peace.

In the Gospel, Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." As we look around our country today, we know many people are burdened: families struggling to make ends meet, veterans carrying wounds seen and unseen, the lonely, the sick, the anxious, the divided, and those who feel forgotten. If we truly want to honor our country, we must also care for the people who carry these burdens.

St. Paul reminds us that we are called to live according to the Spirit. That call is not only personal; it shapes how we live as citizens, neighbors, and members of the Body of Christ. A country is strengthened when its people live with compassion, patience, courage, and concern for the common good.

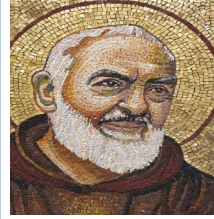

So as we celebrate 250 years of our nation, let us do so with grateful hearts and prayerful minds. Let us thank God for the gift of our country, pray for our leaders, honor those who have sacrificed, and ask the Lord to make us instruments of His peace. May Christ, meek and humble of heart, guide our nation toward greater unity, justice, and care for all who are burdened.

Jonathan D'Amico, Music Director

"I Will Give You Rest"

Today Jesus tells us, "Come to Me, all you who labour and are burdened and I will give you rest." God understands that we get tired and worn out. He wants us to come to Him when we need to rest. He refreshes our souls and gives us the energy and strength to carry on.

Jesus, I'm so tired! Please help me!

Do you ever feel like quitting when a job gets hard? Maybe you get tired of school or helping your Mom or Dad. When you feel like giving up it's time to start praying! Your work might seem easier when you pray, but even if it still seems hard you will be happier knowing that you are doing it for God.

Jesus tells us to take His yoke on our shoulders. A yoke is a sort of bar that is used to help carry heavy things. Jesus is saying that we should do His work. For some people that means preaching like He did, or healing the sick, or being a priest, but for most people it means just doing everything we have to do out of love for God.

Wow! This all seems easier now!

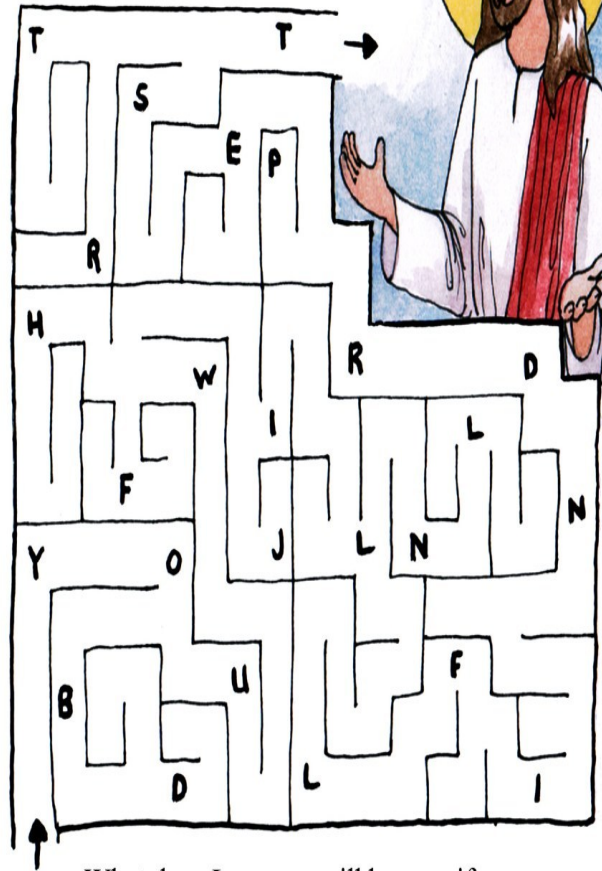

Answer to maze on front: You will find rest.
Answer to word-find: He is compassionate.

Happy Fourth of July!

This year, our nation celebrates the 250th anniversary of American independence. As Catholic Americans, we mark this occasion first and foremost with hearts full of gratitude to Almighty God. We thank Him for the gift of freedom, for the opportunities this country has provided to so many—including generations of immigrants—and for the blessings we often take for granted.

As we celebrate with family and friends, let us also pray for our nation: that God will bless America with peace, justice, unity, and a renewed commitment to the dignity of every human person.

May God continue to bless our country, and may He bless each of you and your families. God Bless America!

Szczęśliwego Dnia Niepodległości!

W tym roku nasz kraj obchodzi 250. rocznicę ogłoszenia niepodległości. Jako katolicy i obywatele Stanów Zjednoczonych przeżywamy ten dzień przede wszystkim z wdzięcznością wobec Boga Wszchemogącego. Dziękujemy Mu za dar wolności, za możliwości, jakie daje ten kraj tak wielu ludziom — także kolejnym pokoleniom imigrantów — oraz za liczne otrzymane błogostawieństwa.

Świętując z rodziną i przyjaciółmi, módlmy się również za naszą Ojczyznę, aby Bóg obdarzył ją pokojem, sprawiedliwością, jednością i odnowionym szacunkiem dla godności każdego człowieka.

Este año nuestra nación celebra el 250.º aniversario de la independencia de los Estados Unidos. Como católicos y ciudadanos de esta gran nación, vivimos esta celebración con un corazón lleno de gratitud a Dios Todopoderoso. Le damos gracias por el don de la libertad, por las oportunidades que este país ha ofrecido a tantas personas — incluyendo generaciones de inmigrantes — y por las abundantes bendiciones que hemos recibido.

Mientras celebramos con nuestras familias y amigos, oremos también por nuestra nación, para que Dios la bendiga con paz, justicia, unidad y un renovado respeto por la dignidad de toda persona humana.

Que Dios siga bendiciendo a nuestra nación y a cada una de nuestras familias.

¡Que Dios bendiga a los Estados Unidos de América!
